

If it turns out that the movie is indeed free paid political programming and not news, how will the injustice be made up to the freedom of the American people?